ALLIES PUT LIMIT ON SOVIET DEMANDS OF POLAND; EUROPEANS WANT TO COMBINE TO WAR ON REDS

VAST STOCKS OF MUNITIONS MOVING FOR POLES' RELIEF

PARIS, July 30.—The limitations which Great Britain and France will put upon Soviet demands of Poland in the arranging of an armistice, are set forth in a notification which has been dispatched to the Warsaw government by the British and French governments. It was learned today. The governments at London and Paris have notified the Polish government that they will not permit Poland to accept possible Soviet armistice demands involving:

FIRST—Whole or partial disarmament of Poland.

SECOND—A change in the Polish system of government dictated or brought about by the Soviets.

THIRD—Acceptance by Poland of a boundary line less favorable than that provisionally drawn by Premier Lloyd George.

FOURTH—The use of Poland as a bridgehead, in any sense, between Germany and Russia.

As bearing on the military situation, it develops that vast stocks of munitions from the allies are moving toward Warsaw today from Danzig on the Baltic and from Rumania and Czechoslovakia.

Hungary has asked the permission of Great Britain and France to attack the Soviet army. Such an attack would involve permission, likewise, to reorganize the Hungarian army, the demobilization of which was provided for by the Hungarian peace treaty.

The allies are hesitating over Hungary's request, according to a high French official because they fear Hungary would expect too many concessions in the terms of the treaty by way of amelioration.

Information which has reached the French government was said today to reveal that Latvia, Finland, Rumania and Hungary were all anxious to make common cause against the Bolsheviks rather than be compelled later to defend themselves individually. To this end, it is declared, the four countries named are making overtures to France and Great Britain for support, moral and otherwise.

WARSAW, July 29.—(By the Associated Press).—The fighting appears to have ceased up on the northern front. In the center there are reports of the withdrawal of Bolshevik troops in contact with their right and left wings. In the south the battle for possession of Lemberg is continuing. It is already in Russian hands. In the center the Poles in their turn have not yet reached the Tatars. The frontiers of Poland toward the Bolsheviks seemingly are being held before an armistice is pronounced.

There is much uncertainty and suspense in Warsaw over the question whether the Poles plan to cross the border fixed by the supreme council of allies and continue to march in the direction of Warsaw. Military observers are inclined to believe the Bolsheviks are striving with all available forces to wrest Lemberg from the hands of the Poles before an armistice is pronounced.

According to some reports the Poles expect August 4, as the earliest date when they are willing to cease hostilities. It is considered apparent that they are determined to capture Lemberg as a prize of the last days.

Head Of Kansas Miners Defies President Lewis

PITTSBURGH, Kansas July 30.—Alexander Homan, president of the local district of the United Mine Workers, today wired John L. Lewis, international president, at Indianapolis, that Kansas miners would use all the power in their command to compel the operators to return every dollar that was stolen from their wages. Several thousand Kansas miners are idle in protest against fines imposed by operators because the miners refused to work Saturdays.

Homan's declaration was regarded by operators as tantamount to defiance of the international president. President Lewis in a recent telegram to the local official took the stand that the five-day week instituted by the miners and which resulted in the assessments levied by the operators, was a violation of the union contract.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS' COUNCIL OPENS ITS EIGHTH MEETING; ECONOMIC BLOCKADE NEEDED

SANSEBASTIAN, SPAIN, July 30.—(By the Associated Press).—We must have an economic blockade," declared Arthur J. Balfour, British representative on the league of nations council, in a talk with newspaper correspondents on the program of the council, which opens its eighth meeting here today. He considered the meeting an important one, because among other things, the blockade question was to be considered. If an economic blockade was applied to a nation which defied the league, Mr. Balfour said, he could not believe that nation would be able to resist for long.

"No nation would destroy itself in these civilized times by inflicting such a penalty," he added.

"It is not likely it will often be used since it is not probable the league will often be defied."

Suffering From Two Dangers
Mr. Balfour gave it as his opinion that the league was suffering from two dangers—one on the one hand, from those people who said it was a useless creation and, on the other hand, from those who believed that in the league had been found a remedy for all international difficulties. If all the nations threw all their problems on it in these early days, before its object had been ingrained in the people's minds, he asserted, the league could not function properly; it must be given time to edify.

"Turning to the Aland Island question, over which he said a clash had been averted by Finland and Sweden referring the case to the league, Mr. Balfour cited it as an instance of the real effectiveness of the league for peace, but, he declared, behind discussions in such a case there must be stronger sanctions and these were contemplated by the league.

Addressing the Spanish press representatives, Mr. Balfour stated he was glad the meeting was being held in Spain, since it emphasized the universal character of the league.

"It would have been a fatal mistake had the allies forgotten the universal character of the body," he continued.

"It is equally important that not only neutrals, but enemy states belong to it, as well as the allies. Those who fail to realize this fact miss the importance of the whole movement. It is the hopes of the world are to be realized the whole world must co-operate."

Sessions of the council of the league of nations, inaugurated here, are expected to continue for about a week. Beginning Tuesday the disarmament commission appointed at the council's meeting in Rome last May, will convene to prepare its report. This will be represented to the council before it adjourns.

It is expected the members of the council will be received by King Alfonso at the summer palace during his sojourn in Sansebastian.

Might Have Added A Little Grease, Too
NEW YORK, July 30.—Shamrock IV was to have been painted with black lead if the challenger and the Result had not raced on Monday. It was decided today by an official of the Staten Island Shipbuilding company. One of the dry docks had been engaged for that purpose and was held in readiness Monday morning, he said.

The black lead was to have been worked up in a high polish with the desired purpose of causing the challenger to slip through the water more easily than would have been possible with ordinary paint.

It was also stated that the black lead intended for the vessel arrived at the Port Richmond yards of the Staten Island company on Sunday morning. It was understood the paint was sent from the Victoria, the chartered steam yacht of Sir Thomas Lipton. The official stated that the black lead would have increased the vessel's speed considerably. Black lead is composed principally of plumbago and is worked into a high polish by rubbing, much after the fashion of shoe polish.

Cox Isn't Consulting The White House In Any Sense About His Acceptance Speech
BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright By Times Publishing Co.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—Several days ago a story was published that President Wilson would wait until he had read the speech of acceptance by Governor Cox and then would write him a letter recognizing him as the leader of the Democratic party. The White House declined to comment on the story and similar silence was observed at Dayton. But the incident caused considerable comment as the writer learned by mingling with Ohio folks and not a few Democratic politicians.

The truth of the matter presents a rather interesting sidelight on the relations between the president and the new leader of the Democratic party and also exhibits some of the delicacies in their respective positions. The facts are these:

When Governor Cox visited President Wilson in Washington, the latter talked cordially to him about the general political outlook and his own campaign and said frankly that he was glad to surrender the leadership of the party to the nominee of the convention. This pleased Governor Cox very much and it was fully expected that the president would make some such statement in public so that there would be no doubt in the minds of the voters as to who was leading the party in the coming campaign. But no statement or letter has been forthcoming and the impression is that Mr. Wilson will wait until he examines the speech of acceptance and determines whether or not the Ohio governor has expressed himself correctly from the Wilson viewpoint.

Cox Not Consulting White House
Out in Ohio, however, ladies like that are apt to be understood as coercion for it is contended that William Johnson held a club over Senator Harding and withheld comment until after the speech of acceptance and the inference promptly was drawn that (Continued on Page Eight)

STILL HAS FEW MILLION DESPITE RUN ON BUSINESS

Charles Ponzi.

BOSTON, July 30.—Charles Ponzi, who claims to have amassed millions within a few months and who has paid to the public large profits on their investments in his deal in international exchange, appeared today almost to have satisfied question among his investors as to his solvency. Only a short time before the payment window of the Ponzi office this morning, and when disbursement was resumed, clerks said they were paying off nearly as much on notes matured for the 30 per cent profit in 45 days as they were returning to frightened investors in principal without interest on notes surrendered short of maturity. The virtual end of the five-day run was in sight with few additions to the disappearing line.

The amount paid out by Ponzi since the run began Monday was estimated by his manager, Miss Lucy Melli, at $1,500,000.

"And we have twice as much money right here in Boston as Mr. Ponzi owns, so there is no need of any one being nervous," she added.

Ponzi a few days ago announced that his liabilities were about $3,000,000 indicating that public participation in his schemes already has been reduced by one-half, with further receipts stopped by his agreement with the authorities to accept no more funds until investigation of his accounts is completed.

Means More Money For Him
The run of frightened investors to cover, Miss Melli said, meant more money in the already bulging pockets of Ponzi as unmatured notes were paid only on the basis of actual investment.

"Their money has been working for us all the time and Mr. Ponzi now can keep the fifty per cent profit which would have gone to these people. You will realize what this means when you know that nearly $1,000,000 which we have paid out has been on unmatured notes, a saving to Mr. Ponzi of almost $500,000," she said.

Ponzi's manager said she had seen nothing of any investigators as yet, although federal, state and county inquiries are under way. Her books, she continued, were open for inspection by anyone in authority and would show that Mr. Ponzi had more than enough money to satisfy all claims.

How Does He Do It?
Examination of the books, however, according to Miss Melli, will not solve the mystery of how Ponzi has made his money. With his ready satisfaction of all demands for payment, question has turned from his solvency to "how does he do it?"

To the statements of Postmaster Patton, of New York, that there are not enough international postal coupons in the world to build up the fortune which Ponzi claims is his, Miss Melli declared that her chief's manner of "cashin' in" on his operations was a business secret which he intended keeping and which examination of his books would not show.

United States Attorney Gallagher announced later that a firm of auditors had begun work on Ponzi's books in behalf of the federal authorities.

At Mr. Gallagher's request, Chief Postoffice Inspector H. B. Mosby detailed one of his force to be present at the audit.

Revolution Aimed At British And American Capitalists Planned By Red Soviets
LONDON, July 30.—The triumph of the proletarian revolution, that is to say, the triumph of the workers' movement, is the aim of the revolutionaries in Great Britain, the workers must prepare for civil war and that the day is coming when Communism, sweeping through Europe and embracing the eastern nations in the movement, would meet Great Britain and America in mortal combat; are outstanding points in a long communication to the British Independent Labor party from the third international at Moscow, quoted by The London Times.

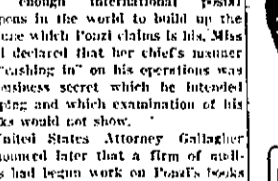

The communication was made in reply to twelve questions sent to the Moscow International by the Independent Labor Party. One of these questions was: "How does Communism differ from other forms of Socialism in either wilful deception or the lack of the bourgeoisie or self-delusion by persons who hesitate to choose between the proletariat and the bourgeoisie?"

Another answer reads in part: "It is most likely the bourgeoisie will surrender its power without a struggle. Therefore the workers of Great Britain should prepare, not for an easy parliamentary victory, but for victory by a heavy civil war."

"Civil war," "world revolution," and profound distrust of parliamentary action appear in several of the answers. The concluding part of the document, as quoted by the Times, says:

"It is probable that when throwing off the chains of the capitalist governments, the revolutionary proletariat of Europe will meet the resistance of Anglo-Saxon capital in the persons of British and American capitalists, who will attempt to blockade it. It is thus possible the revolutionary proletariat (Continued on Page Eight)

New Parking Rules

Chief of Police Joseph Distel, again discussing traffic problems in the city, Friday noon, warned the public against parking on important streets, where traffic is heavy, and issued the following directions for the guidance of motorists:

Parking is prohibited in the following places:

On the north side of Sixth street, between Chillicothe and Gay streets; and on the north side of Galia street, between Chillicothe and the alley just west of the Security Bank building.

"The south sides of these two streets within the stated cross streets, are marked off for parking. Any person who parks on the north sides of these streets is blocking traffic, especially when he backs out to pull away," the chief said.

"We are trying to educate the public so that the number of accidents may be lessened by carefulness and obedience to orders. The congestion which is caused by careless parking causes many cases of 'jazz bumping.' This is what we are trying to avoid. 'Congestion is also a serious matter in case of a fire or ambulance emergency call which would necessitate a hurry run through the business section.'"

Tire Treads Improved 25%

The latest Miller triumph is a super-grade tread. It excels the best rival treads today by an average of 25 per cent. This has been proved, under careful watch, by many road comparisons.

The Miller Tire mileage is the talk of the day. But these new-grade treads outwear the balance of the tire.

Not one Miller Tire, built with this new tread, has ever come back with the tread gone.

These treads do not vary. Every day the Miller tread stock is vulcanized and tested in the laboratory. It must prove up to these new standards before a tread is made.

Miller Cord Tires, in the factory tests, now average 15,000 miles. Miller Fabrics from 8,000 to 9,000 miles. And these factory tests are extreme.

Watch your mileage on one Miller Tire. Compare it with any other and it will win you. You owe that to yourself in view of Miller records.

Milk War In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, O., July 30.—Members of the Ohio Farmers' cooperative milk company, which supplies Cleveland with virtually all its milk, will ship no milk into the city after tomorrow unless they are assured by Cleveland dealers of an August price of 36 cents a gallon.

This was the statement today of H. W. Ingersoll, of Elroy, president of the company.

On the heels of Ingersoll's ultimatum, J. H. Coaffage, vice president of the largest milk distributor in the city, said his company would not pay the producers more than 35 cents for August.

Coaffage said Cleveland would have its milk supply even though the farmers refused to ship it. He declined to discuss where the milk would be obtained. The retail price of milk will be increased next Sunday to match where the company gets its supply, Coaffage said. This increase will be from 15 to 16 cents a quart and from 10 to 11 cents a pint.

Biggest Drop In Wheat Since War

CINCINNATI, O., July 30.—The biggest drop in wheat prices since the closing of the world war took place here today when the new crop of winter wheat sold at from $2.10 to $2.15 a bushel, or at a decline of from 20 to 25 cents per bushel. This is a drop of forty cents per bushel since the crop began moving ten days ago.

CONSERVATISM, THE RIGHT POLICY

To safeguard customers' deposits is the chief purpose of THE ROYAL.

To accomplish this purpose it is absolutely necessary for this institution to practice judicious conservatism in all its dealings.

Particularly in these changing times, conservatism is of the greatest importance to those who want to keep their funds where safety is of the very highest character.

We make our loans on real estate securities and in doing so see to it that the property is worth very much more than the actual amount borrowed, in fact on the basis of present values the property is in all cases worth at least twice as much, and often more, as the face of the loan.

THE ROYAL has shown a steady growth, never having made any exceptional spurts of increase in business, the best evidence that its policies are shaped by experienced men exercising judicious conservatism.

Rheumatism's Pains Are Always Treacherous

Summer an Excellent Time to Combat the Disease

Some cases of Rheumatism give very little trouble to their victims during the summer season, and for this reason now is a most favorable time to take a course of treatment that will reach the cause of the trouble and remove it from the system.

Otherwise, with the very first cold, damp or disagreeable day, your pains will return and gradually increase in their severity, until you will soon again be in the clutches of this relentless disease.

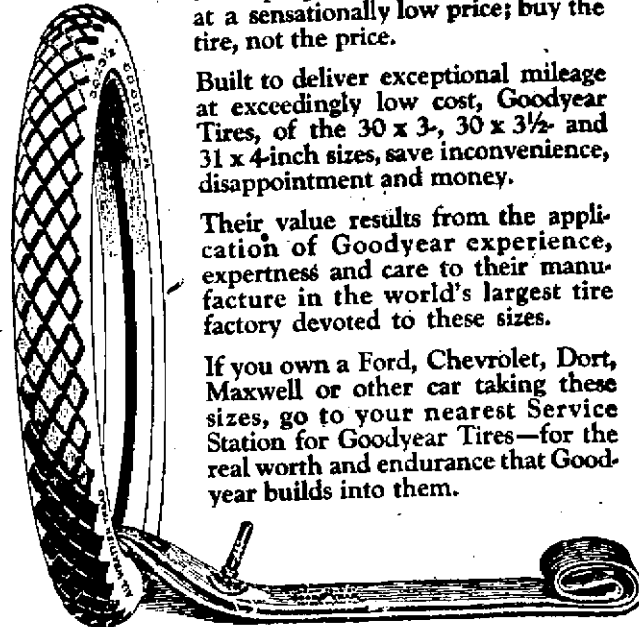

Why not begin at once on a systematic and sensible attack on the millions of tiny germs which cause your

ACID THROWN IN FACE OF WOMAN

A sensation was caused at Mt. Orah on the Cincinnati division of the N. and W. recently when Mrs. Amanda Wahl was attacked in the yard of her home by an unknown man, who threw carbolic acid in her face and tried to focus some down her throat.

Mrs. Wahl attempted to go down the back yard of her home about eleven o'clock at night and had called a young girl of the household to accompany her. Mrs. Wahl was a few yards in advance of the girl and the latter had just reached the door when Mrs. Wahl was seized by a man who attempted to force carbolic acid down

Goodyear Mileage = and Tires for Small Cars

A well built tire yields much more mileage for each dollar of cost than a tire purposely made to be offered at a sensationally low price; buy the tire, not the price.

Built to deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost, Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3, 30 x 3 1/2 and 31 x 4-inch sizes, save inconvenience, disappointment and money.

Their value results from the application of Goodyear experience, expertness and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—for the real worth and endurance that Goodyear builds into them.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly castings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $4.50 in waterproof bag.

Watch Ferry For Berries

Scenes that rival a bargain sale where the crowds stand and wait for the doors to open or the sale to start are being repeated daily at the Union street ferry landing. Homeowners eager to get blackberries at the lowest possible price through the approach to the ferry every morning waiting for hucksters to come off the boat with berries. Among the crowd are to be found hucksters who are all too willing for a fresh supply of berries.

SECRETARY WILSON FAVORS REOPENING OF WAGE AWARD

CHICAGO, July 29.—Coal operators of Indiana today declined to participate in a joint conference with the miners, as suggested by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, with a view to changing or amending the interstate agreement and the contract commission's award.

The executive committee of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, in announcing its action, said it was influenced "by the fact that all contracts, state and interstate, were but a reaffirmation and acceptance by the operators and miners of an award; mandatory in its provisions."

The coal operators are to meet here tomorrow to discuss the coal and strike situation, it was said today. They will represent all the larger interests in Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Speaker (crediting himself) calling out "What Hath You Done?" just as girl fell over a collapsible chair while leaving the Chautauqua tent. It sounded as if the tent were falling down, and consternation soon became a riot of laughter.

A well known young lady clerk sitting in a prominent company display room, stringing beads.

Boy paying five cents for chair at "Chautauqua," placing it in aisle and turning around to sit down, only to find that some one had appropriated same. No amount of persuasion could get her to give it up.

Popular telephone operator falling in front of the Smoke House, as she ran to catch a street car. Her foot slipped on the car track, and she fell her skirt became caught, sliding straight through it.

Prominent engaged couple standing with their noses pressed against the display window of a Galla street furniture store.

Woman nonchalantly walking out of Chautauqua street store, into the street, with head turned neither right nor left, and stepping directly in front of slowly moving machine. The driver came to within 18 inches of her before she was aware of the impending danger, when she turned about and angrily denounced the "wreckless" driver.

Club Members Enjoy Outing

The Million Dollar Club of the Western and Southern Life Insurance Company recently entertained members and their families with a picnic at the William Egan farm on the West Side. The baskets were top heavy with good things to eat, and there was also an abundance of ice cream and watermelon. The rain in the afternoon did not check the enjoyment of the day for the noise of the storm was drowned out by the beautiful music rendered by Mrs. Clara Hansen. Several contests were also arranged. John Hopkins and James Anderson very gracefully rendered a duet and were cheered the loudest as vocalists. William Egan outclassed all rivals in relaying the horseshoes while Alex Campbell won in a walk in the cake eating contest.

S. J. Johnson gave an exhibition trot with his "thoroughbred" barn horse. A. D. Troxel displayed his usual energy in handling the chicken and other "feats."

There were 12 persons in attendance. The day was so pleasantly spent that the Club is already making plans for another outing.

Depression In Wheat

CHICAGO, July 30.—Acute depression recurred today in the wheat trade and a more than 12 cents a bushel break in values was witnessed as a result of scarcity of buyers. At midday the December delivery, in which most of the trading centered, had fallen to $2.21 as against $2.33 1/4 at yesterday's finish. March dropped 12 1/2 cents to $2.22 3/4. Breaks in foreign exchange rates was a bullish factor. Talk of lower food prices by a leading banker here and predictions in other quarters that the movement of the wheat crop would double in volume next week also attracted attention.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

which is the larger city St. Louis, Mo., or Cleveland, O., since the last account was heard.

Cleveland is the larger city, being the fifth in the list of the great cities of the United States.

Miss Dolly Wise—Will you please tell me how pineapples grow?

LOVE TO KNOW.

Pineapples grow on trees in Hawaii after the manner of bananas.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl 19 years of age and have been keeping company with a boy 22 years old. Now Dolly we are engaged, would it be proper for us to quit going together for a while, keep companying with others, and not break the engagement? I love this boy, but it seems to me if we would go with others we would not destined each other better.

WANT TO KNOW.

I cannot understand your viewpoint. It seems to me if you really loved your fiance you would not be satisfied with either both of you, and settle your misunderstandings by confidential talks, wherein each of you must try to see the other's side. Now ask yourself frankly and be quite honest—Would I feel happy if I were going with other girls while I am wearing this ring?

Dear Miss Wise—I am sixteen years of age with brown eyes, black hair and light complexion and am in love with a boy eighteen years of age with blue eyes, brown hair and light complexion. He got passed a few weeks ago and we haven't been together since. He speaks and acts like he wants to come back, but that is all the farther it goes. Now Dolly I want you to tell me how I can win him back. I saw him Sunday afternoon and he stopped me and was talking to all our friends but never asked for a date. I have never cared for any other boy, but him, and want you to tell me how I can win him back. I am sick at heart for him. MAE.

Now, dear Miss Wise, regarding this I am afraid of the object of your question. You are asking for a date, which is a very serious matter. You are only sixteen years of age and he is eighteen. I know it is very hard for you to wait, but the first thing you should know some other thing young man will come along and you will "fall in love" all over again. Now, dear Miss Wise, I am sure you will wait and come coming he will be waiting for you for a date.

Meet me at Nye's fountain.

CHANGES IN C. & O. SCHEDULE

Relative to changes on the C. and O. from Huntington and points East the Huntington Herald Dispatch Friday said:

That the passenger business of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad on lines operating out of Huntington had overgrown the trains available here, was the statement of division officers yesterday. Only lack of equipment prevented the road installing more trains.

Several changes in schedules were made by the road Sunday in an effort to care for the growing business of the road. Chief of these were the dividing of train two into two sections and a similar change on train three. The second section of train two originates in Huntington.

The time changes are:

Train No. 2, from Cincinnati to Richmond, leaving Huntington, 6 p. m.

Train No. 2, from Huntington to Washington, leave 5:20 p. m.

Train 3, Richmond to Cincinnati, arrive Huntington, 1:20 p. m.

Train 11, Washington to Huntington, arrive 4:30 a. m.

The Virginia, time changed from steel of all night trains.

The war schedules on the Loop branch were put in effect. This included a Sunday train and a day train in the morning.

Invited To Notification

Mayor William N. Gableman Friday received an invitation to attend the notification exercises of Governor Cox in Dayton on Saturday August 7. Many other local citizens have also received similar invitations.

Citizens of Dayton are planning to make this one of the epochal days in the history of the Great City.

Quality Furniture Relieves All Worry

There is, perhaps, more people misled on furniture than any other manufactured article. It is an easy matter, in many instances, to fool an expert by a thin coat of veneering — by the use of high-grade varnish stain here and there. But when you purchase furniture at this store you can rest assured that you are getting the "Quality Brand" — furniture that has been made by concerns that built up their business — not by the use of veneering but honest saw test lumber. We never feel the least bit anxious about the furniture we sell — for we know it is exactly as represented and that it will prove its worth the longer it is used.

WE ARE OUTFITTING MANY HOMES IN PORTSMOUTH

There is a reason, of course, and we are quite certain it is because the people have come to regard this store as one place in the city where they get 100 cents value on every dollar expended. Then we feel quite certain that we are just as accommodating — just as painstaking — just as courteous as the people expect. You know it is one thing to expect, and another thing to realize.

COME HERE AND FORGET ALL WORRIES

This store was established that it might treat the patrons fairly and honestly. We are doing that very thing — always expect to. When we have to resort to the buying of veneered furniture — when we cannot sell honest and dependable goods, then the key will turn in the door and we will quit right then and there. We know that our prices are an added attraction, for we buy for less, because we buy in such great quantities — operating a large chain of stores gives us the necessary buying privileges that enables us to sell our customers for less.

To Exhibit Tractors At Fair

The Reliable Tractor and Engine Company of this city is preparing to exhibit a full line of reliable tractors, and engines at the Ohio State Fair at Columbus, commencing August 30th. Columbus was recently selected for the location of the National Tractor Show to be held commencing February 7th, 1921. This selection was highly contested by a number of large cities all over the country. The fact that Ohio farmers are so progressive in the use of tractors and other power farming machinery had considerable bearing on the selection of Columbus. The Ohio State Fair has always been among the biggest and best. And the fact that the annual Tractor Show will be held in Columbus will attract even more interest than usual to the tractor exhibits at the State Fair.

Back From Motor Jaunt

George Koch and family of Wheelwright have returned from a week's motor trip to Springfield, Columbus, Marion, Marietta and Buckeye Lake. They attended the modification exercises held at Marion. The trip was made in their Haynes car without the least sign of trouble. According to Mr. Koch the worst section of road they struck on the entire trip was between Pikeson and Portsmouth on the West Side road.

MRS. M. E. SMITH, prominent Tampa, Florida, woman, who says, thanks to Tanlac, she is now able to walk around without the help of a cane after eight long years of suffering.

"I am so glad my health is being restored after suffering for over eight years with indigestion and rheumatism that I feel like telling everybody about Tanlac," was the enthusiastic statement made recently by Mrs. M. E. Smith, one of the best known and most highly respected women of Tampa, Fla., residing at 906 Morgan St.

The rheumatism from which I had suffered for years even before I had stomach trouble, pained me worse than ever and until recently I was not only unable to walk without the use of a cane, but I was so weak at times I could hardly get out of bed. I tried many medicines but nothing helped me and I almost despaired of ever getting any better.

"Then Tanlac came along and in just a few days after I began taking this grand medicine, my appetite began to improve and in only a short time I was able to enjoy my meals and everything seemed to agree with me perfectly.

"My rheumatism is so much better and I have so much more strength I am now able to walk all about the house and up and down the stairs without my cane. Friends who have become so accustomed to seeing me walk with my cane are astonished when they see me now walking around without it.

"I will always praise Tanlac for what it has done for me.

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher and Stretch Pharmacy and the leading druggists in any town.

SHOT THE WRONG MAN

CANTON, O., July 30.—You're the wrong man," two armed men told Lawrence Ayler, 26, early this morning after they had fired three bullets into his body at close range, seriously wounding him. Ayler was on his way home from work at a local steel company when attacked. Ayler said his assailants were foreigners. They escaped.

Road Is Opened

County Engineer Art Harwood announced Friday that the paved road on the Scioto Trail had been opened to a point one mile north of Lucasville. This no doubt will be welcome news to motorists in the city and county. With its opening one more detour between this city and Waverly is eliminated.

"The paving has been completed to the gate of the Lucasville Fair grounds and the road will be opened before the fair is held there in two weeks," John Harper said Friday. "This will mean a brick road direct to the grounds and should boost the attendance materially."

Mr. Harper says the paving of six additional miles on the Scioto Trail is progressing as rapidly as possible. He says motorists going to Columbus can drive straight through now unless heavy rains have fallen. There are several detours, but they are not in bad shape. Harper and Ruel paved a mile of the road and made fine progress as they were favored with good weather.

"PARLOR BREWERS" GET JOLT

HUNTINGTON, July 30.—Parlor brewers received a jolt yesterday when J. S. Davidson, chief prohibition officer for the federal government in this district raided a local store and confiscated twenty large packages and nineteen small packages of "Buckeye Malt Extract," which authorities say is used for the manufacture of home made beer of alcoholic content ranging as high as seven per cent. They also caused to be removed from the dealer's window a large lettered card bearing the slogan "Make Your Own." No charge was preferred against the dealer.

The prohibition dealer and the assistant district attorney, F. W. McCullough, hold that "Buckeye Malt Extract" come under the provisions of Section 18, title 2, of the federal prohibition laws wherein it is provided that it shall be an offense to offer or expose for sale "ingredients for the making of intoxicating liquors." Penalties for the first offense is a fine of $500.

The federal authorities state that the stuff confiscated amounted to one-third of a shipment received by the dealer a few days before.

The stuff declared by the authorities to be contraband is prepared, they say in Cincinnati.

Small Fire At Brookside

A small fire took place Thursday afternoon at the N. & W. Brookside station near Arion, when a spark from a passing engine landed the paper wrappings around a library table and refrigerator that had been shipped to Camp Good-Far-Whit-Abs-You, the Girl Scout Camp.

The structure was burned as well as the floor of the station. Several men happened to be passing up the track, saw the fire and soon extinguished the flames.

"millions now living will never die"

---Judge Rutherford

Because of unprecedented interest manifested in the rapid fulfillment of Biblical Prophecies, and the many requests for a return date for this lecture, Judge Rutherford has granted Columbus another dating and will deliver this remarkable lecture in MEMORIAL HALL, SUNDAY AFTERNOON. Since speaking here January 4th, Mr. Rutherford has delivered this lecture to overflowing audiences at New York Hippodrome, Boston Theater, Chicago Auditorium and elsewhere, and return dates urgently sought everywhere. Every family is involved and many thousands are rejoicing because of this comforting Biblical message of the hour.

In this lecture, it will be conclusively proven to everyone willing to accept Bible testimony, by important prophecies which have been fulfilled during the past four years, and from many others still in course of fulfillment, that hundreds of thousands now living in this vicinity will never die. Many thousands of advanced Bible scholars within the past few months have endorsed this proclamation and it surely is worthy of general and personal investigation.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED and the promised and long looked for day of reconstruction and refreshing is here and soon will be made manifest to all. In "Millions Now Living Will Never Die" Judge Rutherford offers a reasonable and satisfying solution of the many questions raised by the conflicting claims of orthodox creeds, Sir Oliver Lodge, Sir Conan Doyle, Christian Science practitioners and the various faith-healing sects. No matter what your present ideas may be on the questions of life and death, communication with spirits, now and hereafter, you should hear

OUIJA BOARDS BLAMED FOR ILLS OF STUDENTS

ANN ARBOR (Mich.) January 29—"Ouija boards are coming more plentiful in the fraternity and society homes and in the rooms of independent students than Bibles or prayer books and more frequently consulted," declared a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan, commenting on a report he had just received that two young women in his class had been obliged to leave school and place themselves in the hands of nerve specialists because of their devotion to the ouija boards.

Dr. Warren Forsythe, head of the university health service, admitted that there had been a great influx of nervous students appearing lately for treatment.

One city nerve specialist said he had treated university women for extreme nervousness and that their difficulty seemed to have been caused by too close association with the ouija board and too great belief in its wanderings.

If the above warning is correct, then it is further proof that the entire population of the earth is menaced by ouija boards and like paraphernalia. This menace is due chiefly to lack of knowledge. The people should have the entire truth on the subject, and that is my only purpose in speaking on it.

J. F. RUTHERFORD.

Judge Rutherford Favorably Known In All The Capital Cities of Europe

During the past ten years Judge Rutherford has lectured in nearly every large city in Europe and America on "Where Are The Dead?" and his lectures on "Millions Now Living Will Never Die" and "Talking With The Dead" are outgrowths of that lecture, made possible and necessary by the fulfillment of certain prophecies during and since the war, and as messages of comfort to the many millions bereaved by the enormous casualties in the World War and subsequent flu epidemics.

TALKING WITH THE DEAD

Can The Living Talk With The Dead?

Statement By Judge Rutherford

Can the living talk with the dead?

Sir Conan Doyle, his colleagues, many distinguished clergymen and others, answer yes. The twenty-four prophets of God, the Lord Jesus and His twelve Apostles, according to the inspired testimony set forth in the Bible, answer emphatically no.

Sir Conan Doyle and his colleagues say the soul is immortal—there is no death; hence the dead are able to communicate with the living. Satan said the same thing; and Jesus said Satan is a liar and that this statement was the beginning of lies. (John 8:44.) Satan is the arch-enemy of the human race. Jesus is the Savior of the world, and through Him alone can man get life everlasting. Which one will you believe?

Sir Conan Doyle and his colleagues claim that they hear voices, receive automatic writings through ouija boards, table tipping, etc., and that these emanate from some unseen power. This we do not dispute. The Bible explains that this power is not exercised by the spirits of dead men, but the demons—fallen angels or foul spirits—who were disobedient in Noah's day, and whom God restrained in the darkness around this earth. (See 2 Peter 2:4, 1 Peter 3:18-20; Jude 6.) These demons have exercised their power since the time of the flood until the present time through the instrumentality of mediums. The day of their judgment is now here; hence they exercise greater power and are taking advantage of a grief-stricken world to aid Satan in carrying out his first lie—"There is no death."

Sir Conan Doyle and many distinguished clergymen have been and are being deceived by the demons, because they believe and teach the doctrines of immortality of the soul which is supported by nothing except Satan's falsehood. (Genesis 3:4) immortality is promised as a great reward to those who faithfully follow Jesus, even unto death. (1 Corinthians 15:51-53.) The dead are unconscious; they know not anything; they cannot think, smell, hear, speak or do anything whatsoever. (See Psalm 6:5; 115:17; 146:4; Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10.) This being true, it would be impossible for them to communicate with the living.

Nothing is more plainly taught in the Scriptures than the resurrection of the dead—i. e., that in due time all the dead shall be awakened and given a trial for life. Such positively disproves that the dead are conscious and are able to communicate with the living, because the resurrection of the world has not yet come.

These so-called communications from the dead are in no wise beneficial to man. The messages are never comforting or uplifting, but, on the contrary, they are often vicious and vile and lead men into crime. Great numbers of men are being made insane by the influence of these demons. Satan and the other demons are thus blinding and defrauding mankind in order to turn their minds away from the great blessings God has in store for them.

This so-called science of communicating with the dead is nothing but demonism, or spiritism and is a menace to the welfare of mankind, the overwhelming proof of which is set forth in my new book, "Talking With The Dead."

"I want the statement, 'Millions Now Living Will Never Die,' to be taken literally, as it is, in the light of recently fulfilled prophecy, a provable Biblical proposition." — J. F. Rutherford.

Had Home Brew With Them; Draw Fines

Three men with home made liquor were arrested at New Boston Thursday night.

Joe Hiale and Sam Isom were arrested by Motorcade Officer Dewey Persons who played a charge of speeding against Hiale in addition to a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Later Frank Lucas was the name given by a man charged with being intoxicated. A pint and a half of home made liquor and an empty pint bottle were found in the Hiale machine while a small bottle of liquor was found on Lucas. Friday Mayor J. S. Davis fined Hiale $15 on the charge of speeding and $10 on the other charge. Isom and Lucas both drew $10 fines.

COAL OPERATORS REFUSE TO MEET WITH THE MINERS

CHICAGO, July 30.—Indiana and Illinois coal operators meeting here today voted to reject the plea of President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America for a joint meeting of the operators and miners' scale committee to settle the present strike of day men in the Illinois and Indiana mines.

The operators appointed a committee to draft a reply to Mr. Lewis' message, declaring that the striking miners are violating their contract entered into when the government fixed the last wage award and demanding that the miners' president order his men back to work.

The coal operators will not meet with the miners unless ordered to do so by the government. It was indicated that the operators had decided to sit tight and wait for the government to act. The Indiana and Illinois operators will meet again this afternoon to frame a statement setting forth their position.

Union Chiefs Are Given Blanket Power

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 30.—Executive officers of the United Mine Workers of America today were clothed with full authority to take whatever action they deem necessary in the situation created by the walk out of mine employees in the Indiana and Illinois coal fields.

Blanket authority to act has been conferred on President John L. Lewis and other active officials of the Union by the International Executive Board. It was announced today.

Reports from the Indiana fields today indicated no change in the situation. Union officials at Terre Haute claimed that virtually every mine in the state was closed.

None of the Union officials would comment on the action of the Indiana operators in declining to participate in a recent conference with the miners.

America's Trade Balance With Europe Falls Off Over Half A Billion

LOSES DIAMOND RINGS AND OTHER JEWELRY; FOUND BY LITTLE BOY

Rings stay on my fingers and my wrist watch will remain on my wrist hereafter when I go berry picking," says Mrs. William Evans of 815 Flaming street who lost two diamond rings and a wrist watch Thursday morning while on a berry picking expedition near Jewellville. Mrs. Evans was one of several women who went on the berry picking and before she alighted from her automobile removed her rings two diamonds and a pearl and her wrist watch and put them in her apron pocket and her handkerchief on top of them to hold them in. About ten o'clock when they returned from picking berries and were ready to get into the machine Mrs. Evans missed her rings and watch, the pearl ring only remaining in her pocket. "The members of the party spent most of the afternoon looking for the lost jewelry and at supper time returned home giving it up as lost. Relatives and friends on hearing of the loss agreed to accompany Mrs. Evans on another search and several machine loads made the trip after supper. A short time after the search started Charles Dorf, 8 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorf of 815 Grimes avenue and a nephew of Mrs. Evans found the rings and wrist watch in the dirt beside the road where the machine had stopped in the morning. In tramping about in the deep dust near the machine the searchers in the morning and afternoon had covered the jewelry over. Mrs. Evans has several nephews but she is now ready to say that little Charles is the best one of all.

He does the thing you would have done if you had the nerve and he gets away with it. If you would spend an hour of the most enjoyable entertainment you should not miss this picture. Vola Vale, who will be remembered for her excellent work in support of William S. Hart, Douglas Fairbanks and other big stars will be Mr. Williams' leading lady in this picture. A Picture full of Chuckles and Thrills

in
"HUMAN STUFF"

His latest Quick trigger Adventure in the Land of Romance

Earle Williams, The Popular Vitaphone Star Is At The Eastland Tomorrow.

For his attraction tonight, the Eastland Theatre has the pleasure of presenting an unusual 7 act special attraction, "The Great White Trail," an epic of the Arctic featuring the brilliant star Doris Kenyon. "The Great White Trail" is indeed a wonderful picture, photographed in the far north where a man's man. It offers a very interesting of the true northwestern picture, namely thrilling, fast, beautiful snow scenes and a little red blooded story. Miss Kenyon will be remembered for her excellent work in some of the screen's best productions, surpassing all of her previous efforts in "The Great White Trail." It is a picture that will interest every man, woman, boy or girl in Portsmouth and will satisfy every one who sees it. The added attraction on tonight's program will be another of the famous two reel Rainbow comedies and this one is chuck full of laughs. First show starts promptly at 6 p. m. For best better come early.

The Biggest and Best Double Bill the Exhibit Ever Offered for the First Showing in Portsmouth. Larry Seamon, Comedy King in His Latest Comedy "Solid Concrete and Harry Carey, King of Compuchers in "Human Stuff" a thrilling picture of the Wild West and Effie East.

Although the Exhibit Theatre has offered many big attractions, some of them double bills of exceptional merit. It has never been able to present two such stars on the same program as offered tonight. First, Larry Seamon in latest comedy of laughter, "Solid Concrete" is a gem.

Industry offers a vast amount of fun to the person who can appreciate it. There is no occupation without a thousand laughs, and Larry Seamon has determined to improve the lot of the workmen by showing him how to get the most out of life. To this end he has written, directed and acted a comedy around a workman in a rock crushing plant. And then comes the wild-riding cowboy star, Harry Carey, in his new picture, "Human Stuff." Carey is again seen as Cheyenne, Harry and his battles with man and nature in the vast open spaces of the glorious west will thrill you through and through. You're going to like both of these pictures tonight, so don't fail to come.

Bright Skies with Zo Su Pitts

"Bright Skies," in which Love Shows a Wait the Way to Happiness is the Strong Attraction at The Strand Tonight. Also Pollard Comedy and Fox News.

The life of a slaver in the heart of New York's thrilling East Side is shown with startling vividness by Zo Su Pitts in her latest picture, "Bright Skies," which opens at the Strand tonight.

For want of a better name the slaver is called Sable by the habitués of Mrs. Cassidy's cheap rooming house. All of the unwholesome tasks are hers and she holds no prospects of "Bright Skies" for the little wait, who becomes a wanderer, dancing to the merry tunes ground out by Antonio, an organ grinder.

Her adventure in contentment ends with the death of Antonio. Then begins her love epic. How rich and how poor she is shown upon her; how she gave them up because of her love and her ultimate attainment of "Bright Skies" are the principal motifs of a story that proves a fitting vehicle for the peculiar talents of Miss Pitts.

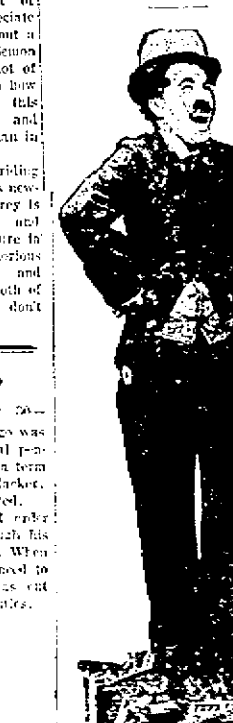

Don't forget the Snub Pollard comedy and the Fox News.

Just The Girl You're Looking For Is Emmy Wehlen in "Tools and Their Money" at The Temple Tonight. Also A Dandy Western "The Boss of Copperhead."

"Tools and Their Money" is the title of the bright little picture that brings Emmy Wehlen to the Temple tonight. It is the first picture we have been able to procure with Miss Wehlen in the title role for some time and we are indeed fortunate for it is one of the best but weather pictures we could think of. The story is interesting, the photography is excellent and we advise you not to miss it.

"The Boss of Copperhead" is the western we should have run last week and it is one of those snappy two reel westerns that make you sit up and take notice.

Charlie Chaplin, in "Charlie Chaplin."

Don't fail to see Charlie Chaplin in "The Immigrant" at the Columbia tonight and tomorrow.

Front Porch Campaign Opens Tomorrow

MARION, O., July 29.—Senator Harding's front porch campaign for the presidency, to be opened tomorrow with an address to a delegation from Mansfield, Ohio, is expected to get into full swing during August, as groups of voters from more distant sections of the country begin to arrive in force.

Two more of the front porch speaking dates were announced today, and Senator Harding said the number of delegations on the waiting list was growing daily.

The two dates added to the list today were August 12, when 600 pottery workers will come from East Liverpool and Columbiana county, Ohio, and September 25 when the legislature will be held a visit by the American defense society. Arrangements for the defense society's appointment were made by Hoffman Nickerson, of New York, who said he expected about a thousand members to be present. Visits from Ohio delegates already had been announced for August 4 and August 8.

Many of the senator's rallies, including party leaders from various states, also have urged him to include their respective localities in whatever speech making trips he may decide to take. These requests are understood to have come from so many sections of the country that it is considered impossible to fulfill all of them.

In his speeches in Marion, Senator Harding expects to take up one at a time the issues of the campaign, speaking in each case on a subject of particular interest to the visiting delegation.

Dry Era Is Depopulating Infirmarys

COLUMBUS, O., July 29.—Absence of saloons is rapidly depopulating Ohio county infirmaries according to J. J. Shearer, state prohibition commissioner, in a statement today.

He pointed out that the Franklin county infirmary had 212 wards last month as against 145 in June 1919; Lucas county, 250 last month against 622 in 1919. Number of inmates in Hamilton county infirmary suffered from the effects of liquor last month was 74 as against 169 in June 1919.

Officials In Clash With Lawless Negroes

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 29.—An unidentified negro was killed and Deputy Sheriff W. A. Fisher was shot through the left side and right leg in a brush between negroes and county officials at Step 14, Sharon Lee, just outside the city limits about 11:20 Thursday night. Fisher will recover. Sheriff Morris with Deputy Fisher and Constable Frank Rice of Sharon were answering a call from farmers on the Sharon Line, who reported that about negroes were committing the violence when the shooting occurred. No sooner had the sheriff and constable come to a stop, when the negroes began firing one bullet striking Fisher in the right hand, passing completely through the hand and into the abdomen on the left side. The effect of men opened fire in the direction of the negroes. When the shooting stopped they found the dead body of the negro in a ditch, with four legs in a revolver, with two empty chambers and in his pockets were bullets of the same calibre. This was the first clash in as many weeks between negroes and authorities here. It causes the trouble was due directly to the negroes' lawlessness.

SOFT COAL OPERATORS REFUSE TO JOIN THE MINERS IN CONFERENCE

SECRETARY WILSON FAVORS REOPENING OF WAGE AWARD

CHICAGO, July 29.—Coal operators of Indiana today declined to participate in a joint conference with the miners, as suggested by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, with a view to changing or amending the interstate agreement and the commerce commission's award.

The executive committee of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, in announcing its action, said it was influenced "by the fact that all contracts, state and interstate, were but a re-affirmation and acceptance by the operators and miners of a award; mandatory in its provisions."

The coal operators are to meet here tomorrow to discuss the coal and strike situation. It was said today they will represent all the larger interests in Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

CLAIMS HE CAUSED MURDER OF PATROLMAN FOR WHICH YOUTH PAID LIFE PENALTY

NEW YORK, July 29.—Robert Hyatt, 30 years old, of Brooklyn, was taken to Bellevue hospital early today for psychiatric examination as a result of his alleged confession to responsibility for the murder of Patrolman O'Brien of Rochester, for which crime a minor Hyatt was electrocuted last night at Ossining. Hyatt, whom the police say typed his confession, refused to sign it after being told that Hyatt had been executed an hour before.

"My life hinges on this; I must see my lawyer first," he said.

He also refused to sign a similar statement written by a detective, on the ground that it contained too many misstatements. Hyatt's actions following his arrest which was effected while he was telephoning police headquarters, led the police to send him to the hospital for mental examination.

Hyatt, who killed Patrolman O'Brien, in Rochester, after he had committed fifteen burglaries, was but seventeen years old when he committed the murder. He claimed to be but sixteen on the eve of his execution, but Governor Smith was informed from other sources that he was, nineteen. Nobody ever has been executed, it is said, under twenty years old in the Big Blue chair.

Talking with the Rev. Dr. A. N. Peterson, the Protestant chaplain, Hyatt said before he knew there was no hope of reprieve.

"I hope Governor Smith gives me a chance for life. If he does, I'll make good."

Head Of Kansas Miners Defies President Lewis

PITTSBURGH, KANSAS, July 29.—Alexander Howat, president of the local district of the United Mine Workers, today wired John L. Lewis, international president, at Indianapolis, that Kansas miners would "use all the power in their command to compel the operators to return every dollar that was stolen from their wages." Several thousand Kansas miners are idle in protest against fines imposed by operators because the miners refused to work Saturdays.

Howat's declaration was regarded by operators as tantamount to defiance of the international president. President Lewis in a recent telegram to the local official took the stand that the five-day week instituted by the miners and which resulted in the assessments levied by the operators, was a violation of the union contract.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 29.—With few exceptions the stock market at the opening of today's session added to the gains made in yesterday's final dealings. Sentiment was further stimulated by the use of call money and the hopeful views of Federal reserve officials regarding credit conditions. Stocks featured the initial movement. Repeating rising 1 1/2 points and Lackawanna 1 point. Rails were again responsive to prospects of an early advance of rates. The foreign exchange market continued to weaken, however, preliminary quotations on London falling 1 1/2 cents under yesterday's final price.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS' COUNCIL OPENS THE EIGHTH MEETING; ECONOMIC BLOCKADE NEEDED

BATTLE FOR LEMBERG IS UNDER WAY

WARSAW, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The fighting appears to have eased up on the northern front. In the center there are rear guard actions, the withdrawing Poles keeping in contact with their right and left wings. In the south the tide for possession of Lemberg is swinging or already is under way, while in the center the Poles in their retreat, have not yet reached the ethnographic frontier of Poland toward which the Bolsheviks seemingly are aiming before an armistice is proclaimed.

There is much uncertainty and suspense in Warsaw over the question whether the Reds plan to cross the border fixed by the supreme council in force and continue to march in the direction of Warsaw. Military observers are inclined to believe the Bolsheviks are striving with all available forces to wrest Lemberg from the Polish hands before hostilities cease.

Should there be an agreement at the Paris-North meeting which begins Friday night.

According to some reports the Reds have set August 4, as the earliest date on which they are willing to cease hostilities. It is considered apparent that they are determined to capture Lemberg as a prize of the last days of battle.

Refugees and others who have arrived at Lemberg say the Bolsheviks who have reached eastern Galicia, already have issued orders calling to Bolsheviks arms all males from 16 to 60 years of age within the invaded territory.

The Poles are determined to defend Lemberg to the last, and if it falls, it will only be after perhaps the greatest battle of the present conflict has virtually all of Lemberg is prepared to support the soldiers in a fight to the finish.

SANSEBASTIAN, SPAIN, July 30.—(By the Associated Press)—"We must have an economic blockade," declared Arthur J. Balfour, British representative on the league of nations council, in a talk with newspaper correspondents on the program of the council which opens its eighth meeting here today. He considered the meeting an important one, because among other things, the blockade question was to be considered. If an economic blockade was applied to a nation which defied the league, Mr. Balfour said, he could not believe that nation would be able to resist for long.

"No nation would destroy itself in these civilized times by inviting such a penalty," he added.

"It is not likely it will often be used since it is not probable the league will often be defied."

Suffering From Two Dangers

Mr. Balfour gave it as his opinion that the league was suffering from two dangers—on the one hand, from those people who said it was a useless creation, and, on the other hand, from those who believed that in the league had been found a remedy for all international difficulties. If all the nations threw all their problems on it in these early days, before its object had been ingrained in the people's minds, he asserted, the league could not function properly; it must be given time to develop.

Turning to the Alland Island question, over which he said a clash had been averted by Finland and Sweden referring the case to the League, Mr. Balfour cited it as an instance of the real effectiveness of the League for peace, but, he declared, behind discussion in such a case there must be stronger sanctions and these were contemplated by the league.

Addressing the Spanish press representatives especially, Mr. Balfour stated he was glad the meeting was being held in Spain, since it emphasized the universal character of the league.

"It would have been a fatal mistake had the allies forgotten the universal character of the body," he continued. "It is equally important that not only neutrals, but enemy states belong to it, as well as the allies. Those who fail to realize this fact miss the importance of the whole movement. If the hopes of the world are to be realized the whole world must co-operate."

Sessions of the council of the league of nations, inaugurated here, are expected to continue for about a week. Beginning Tuesday the disarmament commission appointed at the council's meeting in Rome last May, will convene to prepare its report. This will be presented to the council before it adjourns.

It is expected the members of the council will be received by King Alfonso at the summer palace during his sojourn in Sansebastian.

KEEPING ITS COMPACT

"DEMAGOGUERY of so potent a nature as to shock the conscience of all sensible Americans."

In these terms W. A. Julian, a sound, sane, sensible man, who is a candidate for senator, characterizes the conduct of those other seekers after the place, who actuated solely by a desire to catch votes, are throwing out vague insinuations against the government because war bonds are below par.

When the government issued these bonds it pledged that they would be devoted to a specific purpose, the winning of the war, it also promised to pay interest on the obligations semi-annually at a fixed percentage and to redeem them at maturity, at the fixed value. It kept its pledge, it won the war; it is paying the interest on the day accruing as promised; there can be no substantial doubt either of its ability or purpose to pay the securities in full at maturity. It made no promise or pledge of any sort to maintain them at par.

But, as the bonds meet all terms and are absolutely secure, why are they selling at a discount?

There are two perfectly sufficient reasons for that. The first is that other investments are offering more inducement in the way of interest and dividends; the second is because, from various causes, bonds are being thrown in such vast amounts upon the market by the original holders, that that quantity of money which always seeks first an investment of safe placement, with a moderate interest, is totally unequal to taking them all up, so buying and trading in them falls in the main into the hands of speculators, or investors, who lie in wait to make money of the misfortune, or weakness of others.

It is entirely safe to say that had all the original purchasers been able, or had the thriftiness to hold their bonds, they would today be selling above par, instead of at a discount. Nothing is more certain than this, except that they will be commanding a premium before the years come for their redemption. It has been just that way, below par and then above par, with every issue put out by the United States.

This brings to our mind another thought on the subject. Every time there is discussion of it the usual wont, when no politics enters, is the outcry that the depreciation of bonds comes of the waste of the people. That waste has a good deal, of a truth, a vast deal to depress prices, but it hasn't all, not by any means. In former instances government bonds were sold to investors, that is to those who had money to place and spare. Yet, as we have said they early went to a discount, let it not be forgotten, we insist, to rise above face denomination. Various exigencies forced holders to sell them, financial reverses, the temptation of larger returns and the attainment of means to secure a home, or other possession greatly desired, or a fictitious alarm, arising from the sole fact that bonds were below par.

With war issues all these causes are multiplied and accentuated because of them all the people bought, millions against thousands before, because they wanted to help the government according to their means. Many bought heavier than they would reasonably pay for or hold. These are to be, indeed, pitied, but their condition is not bettered by the demagogues, whose agitation can have but one effect, to make bonds still lower. Not a one of them, it will be noticed, has a remedy to offer, he only mouths a complaint.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

NO LONGER PRINCE CHARMING, JUST PLAIN HARRY

After the first shock following Nessa's first disclosure I was seized with a great desire to laugh, and laugh I did. Most merrily. Finally, between gales, I told Nessa why I was so doing, and she, too, joined me. We had the best time ever between us and while sipping our wine we agreed that that was the only sensible way to take men anyhow!

I expect that if I live very much longer with some of my friends, I shall find my tender young bosom. But it may all be for the best at that. Not only has Prince Charming—just plain, unadorned Harry to me now—gone, but he has left me a young wife, and a young son of seven and one-half.

I feel very sorry for poor Mrs. Harry, somehow, or other, but as Nessa says, she knows her Harry, thoroughly, and let's him wonder and wonder about as much as he chooses, for he always does run back to her, happily.

Makes the kissed ones feel so good, all this side information about this don Juan, eh, what? Well, I still think that it is our foolish tendency that is at fault, rather than Harry or myself or the other girls that he has kissed. We don't ever discover how to tell a lover from a husband! And there is a way, so they say.

Nessa was amused to death at my story of Harry and his love for me. "Lord, honey, he makes love to every new face that he meets," said she brutally. "He just can't help himself and he never takes him seriously. But he is a dear fellow just the same and we must look the world of him, for all his faults."

Good thing for me that I was not in love with Harry, all the same, for I might not have gotten over it so easily as he; but, thank goodness, it was only some romantic streak in me that was touched by him and his darts, even not my heart.

Nessa and I had a mighty good time together, and she showed me some of her illustrations for a new fairy-tale book. She really is awfully clever and does the scariest black and white sketches. Everything so full of fantasy. She looks like a little gypsy herself.

I interested me greatly to find out from her own lips that she and Ted, born about the same amount of money a year, and share all expenses. No wonder they are so happy. I think that they are an ideal couple, and with no hesitation Nessa acknowledged that they were all of that.

She also told me that if she were to let Ted support her, and become just a wife with an outlook feather from the four walls of the house, and no work of her own, they would become a pair of fighting cocks within a week, and end up in Reno.

Whoever said that untied youth (that is myself) does not know anything? Why, I knew all along that the true basis for a lasting happiness in matrimony is mutual respect, which comes from both parties working of being interested in something besides just each other, and in mutual contributing to the upkeep of the home.

And I am not so Socialist either, so there! Blame it on that seventh sense, or my womanly instinct if you like, and you'll near the truth.

BILLY WHISKERS

FRANCES TREAD MONTGOMERY

As soon as Billy and his mother got through the narrow pass they turned once more into the woods, which here sloped upward. They had now passed the last of the farms and beyond them lay nothing but wooded hills and the mountains. Up and up they scrambled until at last, near nightfall, they came to a little, grassy mountain plateau, watered by a tiny stream that tumbled down from the mountains, and here after taking a long drink, they rested.

After a while they made a good meal from the tender young grass that grew at the side of the stream, and lay down again. Soon they were fast asleep, side by side.

It was nearly midnight and the moon was shining brightly overhead, when they were both awakened by the bark of the deer, said that they might say if they were not quarrelsome, but that they would have to look for themselves if hunters came that way.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY G. C. MONTGOMERY

NEW YORK, July 30.—Thoughts are no longer rugged, while strolling around New York. A gangster from Hell's Kitchen, trying to catch a taxi, is a sight to be seen. A crowd of people, a confused mass, blinking eyes shot with light, a brawl in a cafeteria. How quickly the crowd collects. Nothing fascinates more than a street fight. Unless it is a lost tooth.

A catenary line loose on Broadway. A fall loss for someone. Police Patrol. Garbled in Oriental notes and urbanisms. Goes from one cafe to another making Italian dishes. Married three white women. That's a snappy main coat John Drew is wearing.

All the debutantes wearing gingham frocks. And down at Long Beach the old fashioned sun-bonnet is in style. But the best news comes from New-York. Checks are no longer rugged. Nor eyebrows penciled. The facts are that white washed and shadows are placed under the eyes. What a topsy-turvy old world it is!

Two young sailors staggering from drink. Red-haired girls everywhere. Last year they were bloated. And next year what? Twilight falling suddenly on a weary city. The lurch and groan of homegoing buses. Shopkeepers putting up their doors. The messes calling out their last extras.

There's something majestic about the skyscrapers against the evening sky. Little lounges of light for slift. Flicker like the star-tipped angle words of spirits pointing thick night upon a city. Thousands running house pell-mell. A warpath of well being quivers in the streets.

At dusk one feels the rhythmic thronging of a city's heart beat. I just stepped on a lady's foot while watching the stars. And soaring above the roar of traffic. It is a material world after all. What's the use? I'm going to stop in this jazy little restaurant and inhale a bowl of onion soup.

Churchill's has closed for the summer. A peep into the former haunt of day and night reveals a ghostly array of white and tables—empty. This stage can be easily outlined at night when the petted throngs of the celebrities hang to the wire buyers at the roadside table. Cap Churchill has gone up into the States to fish. Slave Churchill left a police captain to run his gilded restaurant, he has made a song for him, but with prohibition it is difficult. He expects to open in the fall, but there are many who believe that quite a number of the big cafes now bearing signs "Closed for the Summer" will not open again.

Down underneath the sidewalk on West Fourth street is Greenwich Village. It is a trinket shop which is called the "Layover" (Layover) or the "Blue Elephant," or after some other famous of remarkable color. It doesn't matter much. The proprietor is the spokesman for Washington Square. He has been appointed by the honest folk running ten shops and cabarets to defend the Village from charges of wickedness. Each day he sends mimeographed notes to city editors dwelling upon the purifying purities of that part of the city. He declares that instead of artists having long hair, the majority are bald. All the good ones are at least, he adds.

A new kind of shop has opened in one of these little holes in the wall popular in the Forties. It sells nothing but chewing gum and is called The Chewing Gum. It has had a good patronage since it opened six weeks ago and the proprietor tells me that he expects to make $30,000 net profit the first year. He says prohibition has increased the chewing gum demand. All of which may be added to the horrors of prohibition.
